

Greetings Fellow Merchant,

I don't know how many read yesterday's Orange City News, or attended the recent National Night Out up at the Target parking lot. There they introduced a new free program offered by our police department which you may wish to subscribe to.

It is an email notification system that alerts residents and businesses to crime issues in their neighborhood, and provides crime prevention tips, etc.

If you are an Orange resident, you can sign up for home alerts and of course you can sign up for your separate business address.

A cool thing the article mentioned is that this 35,000.00 program was paid for by various community groups donating 5,000.00 and 30,000.00 coming from money seized through their illegal drug interdiction program. Take THAT you drug lords!

Below is the link for you to sign up. Let's all sign up so we know what's going on! :)
